Editorial

The Sutherland Sharks find themselves firmly entrenched at the foot of the Super League table after 17 rounds of the premiership after finishing on the end of a 4-0 thrashing at the hands of the Parramatta Eagles at the weekend.

Malcolm Meilak opened the scoring for the Eagles after 34 minutes and the Sharks found themselves two goals down three minutes from the break through a Gabriel Mendez goal.

Second half efforts from Sasho Petrovski and Steve Karavatakis sealed the Sharks fate.

The win by the Eagles took them a whopping eight points clear of the chasing pack which is being lead by the Leichhardt Tigers.

Meanwhile, Sydney United continue to climb up the ladder after recording a stunning away win against Macarthur Rams in midweek, then settle on a nil-all draw against the might of Blacktown City.

The three points United picked-up took them off the bottom of the table, relegating pre-season cup winners Sutherland to the foot of the table.

The Central Coast were made to fight hard for a share of the points on their visit to St George at the weekend with a Shane Knight goal in the 50th minute cancelling out Daniel Cummins' earlier effort in the first half.

The point the Coasties picked-up keeps them in touch for a place in the semi finals with no less than five clubs fighting out for a spot in the play-offs.

The weather again played havoc with fixtures with the Leichhardt Tigers-Bankstown set down for Lambert Park and the Canterbury-Bonnyrigg Whites Eagles game at Henson Park postponed.

In Division One, Hurstville City Minotaurs continue to set a cracking pace at the top of the table, leading Ryde City by four points with a game in hand.

On The Road to the title

BLACKTOWN CITY vs LEICHHARDT TIGERS

Demon's coach Bob Daley said after their match with Sydney United, that this game would show whether they were a genuine contender this year. And after a disappointing effort against United, most Demons supporters would tend to agree. They have a testing few weeks ahead but this game really has to be the one where the Demons players stand up and be counted. Their current form has been rather ordinary and despite dominating against United found it hard to penetrate towards goals. Leichhardt were forced to postpone their game against Bankstown which was a major blow for them. Coming into this match they will not have played for nearly three weeks, not what new coach Peter Katholos would have wanted. The Tigers are in second spot and have two games in hand of Parramatta and need to keep the pressure on if they are to have a shot at the premiership.

RECORD: Have met five times at Blacktown, with the Demons yet to win at home. Leichhardt have won twice with three games ending in draws. Last year saw the Tigers win 3-2.

CONCLUSION: The Demons will be without Steve Berry for at least the next three weeks and his loss is a big blow. The Tigers will be strong in defence but Katholos's attacking approach should see a fairly open game.

CENTRAL COAST vs CANTERBURY M/VILLE

The Coasties were back to their early season form last week, dominating the game but unable to put the ball in the back of the net. Could have buried St. George by half-time but instead found themselves a goal down. Did eventually draw even in the second half but with points at a premium, it is games like that where they must take full points. Canterbury have been the surprise packet this year and are still in contention for a semi-final spot. With only three losses for the year they are definitely a hard team to beat but too many draws have left them just out of the five. Have games in hand of both Blacktown and Central Coast but with six tough games to go the Berries will have to win this one to have any chance.

RECORD: Have met just the once with the Coasties winning 2-0.

CONCLUSION: The Coasties basically have to win this one. They have a good run home with only one opponent in Leichhardt that is in the five. Canterbury's washed out game won't have done them any good and the Coasties should win this well.

SUTHERLAND SHARKS vs ST. GEORGE SAINTS

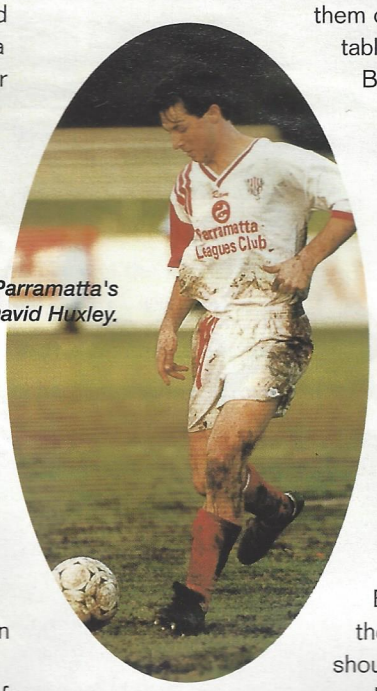
This local derby is always one to look forward to throughout the season. However it takes on extra significance because it could decide the fate of the two sides this year. The table sees the Saints four points ahead of the Sharks and a result for the Saints would virtually see them avoid the wooden spoon. Sutherland woes continued last week with a 4-0 thumping at the hands of Parramatta. They have not won since round eight and have lost six of eight matches since. Injuries plague the side at the moment and unfortunately they haven't got the quality back up to cover these losses. St. George picked up another courageous draw last weekend, making it four on the trot. However they need to go on and get wins to ensure they stay well above the Sharks.

RECORD: Have met 11 times at Sutherland and it's the visitors who hold a big advantage with seven wins to the Sharks one. Last year saw the Sharks record their first victory over the Saints at home by 2-0.

CONCLUSION: The Saints inability to win games worries me a little and it could very well come back to haunt them in this game. The Sharks know a win must be achieved at all costs and will go all out. For me the Sharks will upset the form guide.

BANKSTOWN CITY vs MACARTHUR RAMS

This game throws up an interesting dilemma in particular for Bankstown. Due to their game with Leichhardt being called off they are not meeting a team that is coming off a bye. In fact of the two Macarthur was the last to play in their deferred game against Sydney United which they lost. The Rams unfortunately have really gone off the boil of late with a number of players losing form. David Reid's influence has not been as prevalent as it was earlier in the season and needs to step back up a gear. Still in with a minor chance of a finals berth but would have to pull off a few surprises. The Lions though are firmly in the five and despite missing the game last weekend, should still be full of confidence after some good results. However have lost the services of Scott Baillie and Can Celik for the rest of the season which may unsettle the team. Goran Vulic has come on loan from Blacktown to fill in for Celik.



Parramatta's David Huxley.

RECORD: Have met twice at Jensen Park, with both sides having a win apiece. Bankstown won 1-0 in last years corresponding game.

CONCLUSION: Macarthur is Bankstown's bogey team with four wins from the five games played all up. Both sides still have a lot to play for so both will be attack minded. An entertaining game is on the cards and on form you would have to stick with the Lions.

BONNYRIGG W.E. vs SYDNEY UNITED

As usual this game always brings out the best in both sides. Traditional arch rivals and will surely be out to win and win well. The fact that United has also started to put a few good results together has added to the match which a few weeks ago, would have been a formality in the home sides favour. Eagles coach John Turner will be pressing his players to concentrate on football which this year has been both very enterprising and entertaining to watch. They never sit back and let dictate to them and are always willing to attack in numbers which opens up play. Lost their last game to Central Coast but only after giving the home side a real scare in the second half. United's win over Macarthur not only lifted confidence but also lifted them off the bottom of the table. The draw against Blacktown was a good effort and pushed them a full game clear of Sutherland at the bottom of the table.

RECORD: Have met seven times at Bonnyrigg, with the home side winning twice and United four times and one draw. Last met at Bonnyrigg in 1983 with United winning 1-0.

CONCLUSION: Both sides like to play the ball around which should make for a good open game. Bonnyrigg I suspect will try and close the supply to Tony Krslovic who is by far United's main avenue in attack and with this in mind the Eagles should get the points.

KRSLOVIC NAILS RAMS

Tony Krslovic scored a cracking goal direct from a free kick to virtually put an end to Macarthur Rams semi-final hopes at Lynwood Park last Wednesday.

Krslovic the most experienced player in the young United side, nailed his shot which swerved and dipped to beat Rams keeper David Hayes with only 12 minutes remaining.

Macarthur's slim hopes of a finals spot has now all but evaporated and to get there would have to win every game from here on.

They had the better of the game throughout but it was again lack of composure in front of goals that let the Rams down.

To United's credit, the Rams were forced to shoot from long range but shots from Adrian Macerola, Eddie Clune, Ben Green were all wide of the mark.

Andrew Crews' only save of note came minutes before half-time saving from Green, while United's best chance came a minute later when Krslovic's close range shot was saved by Hayes.

The second half saw both sides in an attacking frame of mind with United's Scott Xuereb looking dangerous down the right. Three times in as many minutes he whipped over dangerous crosses, with Joel Griffiths denied twice and Krslovic once by Hayes' good keeping.

However in the 65th minute, United's Christian Rasmus finally broke the deadlock with a perfect lob that gave Hayes no chance.

Eight minutes later the scores were level again when a corner curled in by Warren Hayward was powerfully headed home by Macerola.

But it was Krslovic who rounded off a good performance for himself with his shot which Hayes got his hands to but could not prevent from going over the line.

The win also lifted United off bottom spot for the first time in nearly two months.

Macarthur: Hayes, Wright, Lord, Reid, Clune (Thomas), Lindley (Costello), Green, Rayner, Macerola, Hayward, Sweeney.

United: Crews, Maric, Rasmus, Rudan, Griffiths, Moric (Angievski), Bilokapic, Krslovic, Badrov, Alilovic (D Zoric), Xuereb.

Sutherland's Craig Hobbs strives to control the ball.

UNITED GRAB FURTHER POINT

Sydney United's youngsters turned in another solid performance to grab a share of the points with Blacktown City at the Gabbie Stadium.

Despite the 0-0 scoreline the game had some fine passages of play with some good passing by both sides.

But once the ball got in and around the penalty box at both ends the play more times than not was turned over too easily.

Both defences looked strong with only a header by Steve Berry going near goal in the early stages.

Midway through the first half Blacktown started to put together some pressure with Berry having three shots at goal in four minutes.

The first came in the 28th minute when Berry only five yards out and Crews beaten hit a tame shot to an open goal enabling Tom Maric to clear right off the goalline.

Two minutes later he was clear in the box but his shot was deflected narrowly wide by an outstretched leg of a United defender, while his third chance was stopped brilliantly by Crews with the use of his legs.

United to their credit kept their cool and Christian Rasmus went just wide of the far post, while Tony Krslovic saw his well struck free kick turned away by Demons keeper Fernando Greco.

Play in the second half became a battle of the midfielders as neither side was able to gain the ascendancy.

Blacktown though through the creative talents of Ivo De Jesus did produce a few chances with Jason Connolly shooting very poorly with only Crews to beat after 69 minutes.

De Jesus looked to be the only player that was going to score on the night and he was desperately unlucky with 15 minutes to go. Racing onto a long searching ball by Stuart Munro, De Jesus struck a first time volley on the fly which Crews saved brilliantly down low.

A minute later with nothing on from a throw-in on the left side, he turned his marker superbly before cracking a 22 yard effort which looked goalbound but for a full stretch, fingertip save by Crews.

Blacktown was expected to make the breakthrough but it was United that put the pressure on in the closing minutes with Steve Cutler making a timely interception as two United players were about to pounce on a cross from the right.

Blacktown: Greco, Doyle, Cutler, Foxe, Munro, Anderson, Suzor, Berry (Hickman), Cleary (Harding), De Jesus, Connolly.

United: Crews, Xuereb, Moric (Angievski), Plesa (Badrov), Rudan, Maric, Bilokapic, Rasmus, Alilovic (D Zoric), Krslovic, Griffiths.

COASTIES HELD BY SAINTS

Central Coast were unable to capitalise on a dominant first half display to eventually force a 1-1 draw with St. George at St. George Stadium.

Despite dominating the half the Coasties found themselves down a goal at the break after Daniel Cummins put the Saints ahead in the 20th minute.

Right from the opening whistle the visitors tore straight into the Saints defence with Damien Brown just missing with a shot from 20 metres after only three minutes.

With most of the play in the early stages, the Coasties goalmouth had hardly been touched when a scramble developed and Cummins slotted home the loose ball.

Undeterred the Coasties kept the pressure on and Robert Graskoski produced a superb save to deny Nathan Byrn in what looked like a certain goal in the 25th minute.

Chances kept coming and Phil Moss, Shane Knight and Paul Roberts all missed good chances before the break to level the game.

Four minutes in the second half though, they were on level terms when Byrn crossed to an unmarked Knight at the far post who had an easy tap in.

But to St. George's credit they came back and had a good spell for the next 20 minutes but could find no way past a well organised defence.

The last ten minutes saw play go from end to end but neither side was able to break the deadlock.

St. George: Graskoski, O'Shea, Scotti, Carter, Dauzacker, Totaro, Cummins, Araujo, Price, Grbevski, Ellul.

Coasties: Fitzsimmons, Moss (Preston), Lovie, Drysdale, Lowe, Brown, Thompson, Byrn, Knight, Clarke, Roberts (Norman).

EAGLES THUMP SHARKS

Parramatta Eagles thumped a dejected looking Sutherland Sharks outfit 4-0 at Melita Stadium, to extend their lead at the top of the table.

Two goals in each half, erased an erratic few weeks which had seen Parramatta's closest rivals keep in touch for the premiership title.

For the Sharks it continues their long season which now sees them well and truly entrenched at the foot of the table.

The Eagle's David Harding looks for support as Sutherland's Craig Hobbs closes in.

They did however start brightly enough when Harry Christodoulou broke through in the 3rd minute but shot over the bar.

Then in the 21st minute Craig Hobbs missed a golden opportunity for the visitors, shooting wide with the goals wide open.

But as the game wore on Parramatta looked more dangerous and when Steve Karavatakis saw his header hit the post and Saso Petrovski miss the rebound the signs were ominous.

Two minutes later good work by the Eagles saw Petrovski feed Malcolm Meilak with a great pass and shoot truly past a helpless Paul Henderson.

Hobbs could have levelled in the 40th minute shooting wide and two minutes later Mendez had the Eagles two up after rounding Henderson and finishing with an acute shot.

After the break Sutherland came out fighting putting pressure on the Eagles defence who held firm.

The Eagles struck a cruel blow in the 60th minute, when Petrovski tapped in a cross from Sasha Utjesenovic and then with 15 minutes to go Petrovski was brought down by Andrew Dowling and Karavatakis converted for his tenth of the season.

Parramatta: Holmes, Souris, Huxley, Jee, Harding, Meilak, Utjesenovic, Haniotis, Petrovski, Karavatakis, Mendez.

Sutherland: P Henderson, Lerond, S Henderson, Cabassi, Clinch, Dowling, Bard, Christodoulou, Moszny, Hobbs (Pillay), Kinninmont (McLeay).

Teenage

By PETER KOGOY

The weather clearly impacted on the Super Youth League competition last weekend.

No less than five series of matches had to be postponed with combined competition leader Sydney Olympic one of the most affected sides.

Olympic were scheduled to meet lowly Sydney United at Blick Oval, but with the constant rain had little chance to extend their overall lead over Parramatta Eagles.

The Eagles themselves had to seek shelter after their schedule of matches against Marconi Fairfield were called off.

The big winners in the top echelon was Adamstown Rosebud who picked up seven points at the expense of the Warringah Dolphins.

But the Buds couldn't sustain the effort against the visiting Macarthur Rams who scored morale-boosting wins in the under 14 and under 16 age divisions.

Adamstown lost further momentum in a 2-1 loss to Gladesville Hornsby in a rescheduled Round 20 match at Adamstown Oval.

Honours were shared between the Sutherland Sharks and Gladesville Hornsby at Solander Oval where a win to the Sharks in the 13s was cancelled out by loss to Gladesville in the 16s.

The big winners in Round 18 in Division 1 of the youth league was the Bankstwon Association who took eight points off the Nepean Association at Cook Park.

The Blacktown Association picked-up seven points in their home series against the Penrith Panthers at Francis Park.

The tone for the day was set by Blacktown's 3-1 wins in both the under 13s and under 14s.

Penrith scrambled to a 1-0 win in the 15s before settling on a two-all draw in the 16s.

With competition leaders Leichhardt Tigers inactive because of the weather Eastern Suburbs picked-up six points at the expense of CSI Scholfields at Jellicoe Park, before snaring another six at the expense of St George in the under 15s and 16s in a rescheduled round 12 fixture.

Revolution

Rosebuds Blossom

The eight points AC United picked up in their away series to Granville Association sees them move to fourth on the overall table, just one point ahead of St George.

Matches between Leichhardt v Southern Branch, Kurringai v Bonnrigg and the local derby between St George and Rockdale City Suns were all postponed.

In Division two the Canterbury Association moved nine points clear of near neighbours Stanmore Hawks on the strength of their wins against Mt Druitt Town in the 13s, 14s and 15s.

Only a one-all draw in the 16s robbed the young Berries of a clean sweep of the Townies.

The competition for promotion is truly hotting up in this division with Canterbury Association, Stanmore Hawks, Ryde City and Mt Pritchard all still very much in the hunt.

Stanmore and Mt Pritchard had to settle on a share of the points with the Mounties' 3-0 win in the under 15s being cancelled out by the Hawks 2-1 win in the under 16s at Pratten park.

Just two games could be scheduled at Northlakes Oval in the postponed round nine fixture between Macquarie Sports and Parramatta City with each side claiming three points before officials called off the 15s and 16s.

Earlier Parramatta City picked-up a handy seven points in their series against St Johns Park at Hadjuk Stadium.

First Division Weekend Review

PAUL GOODWIN REPORTS

MINOTAURS WASHED OUT AGAIN

Not for the first time in recent seasons Hurstville Oval has been pulled out on the Friday which means that Minotaurs have had to hastily re-arrange for the game against Warringah to be played in midweek instead.

There were early morning inspections as well at Blick Oval, Fred Caterson Reserve and Wentworth Park with all three venues being pulled out early on Sunday.

Thus, West Wanderers must return to play Eastern Suburbs, possibly at a ground other than Wentworth Park, Stanmore may need to play a double header to fit in a second visit to play Hills United, while Belmore and Rockdale could well be played on a neutral ground as well.

RYDE CITY FIGHT BACK AT ILLAWARRA

Two up at the break some lapses of intensity and concentration in the midfield by home side Illawarra Lions allowed Ryde City to draw level and escape with a point at a soggy Ian McLellan Park on Sunday.

The Lions were without Darko Delovski and the Ristevski boys as well as Richard Lloyd who is overseas and will not be back until the last two matches.

They brought in new signing from the Wolves, Steve Laybutt, to fill the sweeper's spot and the 19 year old had a tremendous debut alongside Tony Trpcevski.

When fellow defender Alessandro Borsato was injured Oliver Vrtkovski came on and scored the first goal in the 26th minute.

The Ryde defence, missing the redoubtable Andy Stratford, cleared a ball to his feet and from 30 yards Vrtkovski lifted the ball just under the crossbar giving the keeper no chance.

One minute before the break, following a corner, Sasha Dimoski was quick to gain control of a ball which the defence had too long at their feet in front of goal and sent a low 25 yard angled shot past an unsighted keeper.

Ryde were outplayed in the midfield until the hour mark when they stepped up their workrate and began to gain more possession.

Matthew Borg was then able to speed away down the left, passed to Jim Boudaher who cut the ball back to Tim Gledhill who, in turn, sent a shot past the advancing keeper, Anton Avellino.

Matthew Borg got the equaliser five minutes later when he was put away and after going wide to the right beat Avellino with a cool finish from close range.

A crowd of several hundred watched as the Lions hung on to preserve a point at the finish. Reserve keeper Steve Angelov came on as a winger late in the game, but the score remained 2-2 at the finish.

BATHURST HOME FORM ALMOST DESERTS THEM

Yet again Bathurst conceded the first goal in their match against Penrith at Alex Lamberton Park on Saturday.

Gavin Thomas and Tony Clancy came into the side with the injury-troubled Archie Thompson sitting it out on the bench alongside the out of touch Shane West.

Darren Read maintained his high strike rate with a 23rd minute header after a cross from the left had eluded both Braydon Barcham in the Bathurst goal and defender Shaun Dixon.

Barcham made a great save in the second half to deny Hinton who had been put in by a lovely chip over Paul Waine's head by the effervescent Read.

Penrith survived some goalmouth activity themselves before the break as Scott Mutton, Tony Clancy and Tony Judge all fired wide of the target.

The first goal for the home side came in the 55th when Mutton was left unmarked to head home a cross from Clancy on the right after a long ball forward by Mark Rooke.

In the 74th substitute Thompson beat the keeper cleverly after Clancy had again done the spadework on the right and delivered a square pass.

When Clancy's left-sided cross was not cleared in the 85th and the ball fell to Adam Collins 35 yards out, following a challenge on the keeper by Rooke, the astute Collins had time to switch the ball to his right foot and lift the ball over the keeper into an open goal for Bathurst's third.

Penrith came back a minute later when Hinton put away a cross from the left by skipper David Fitzharris who had drawn Waine and sent a bouncing ball into the goalmouth beyond the last defender.

This 3-2 scoreline was the same losing margin for Penrith as the previous week, but the twin strikers Read and Hinton are combining well which means that most work needs to be done on the defence.

MOUNTIES MISSES NEARLY LET IN GREYSTANES

Greystanes made some of the early running in their game with Mount Pritchard at Cook Park, but early shots from Kenny Bridge and Mark Racker failed to trouble the experienced Dragan Pupovac.

Their best early chance on a slippery surface, - completely playable by the way - fell to Neil Mineff who got on the end of a free kick from the left byline to slither the ball just wide in the 17th minute.

Mounties took command after the first twenty minutes and when

Scott Spurway burst through to lay on a pass for Joe Bruni, who carried the ball to the left of the box, a goal looked certain in the 23rd.

Bruni made the angle difficult by going wide and his shot rebounded off the right hand post back along the goal line where David Apps dived on it gratefully, near to the left post.

Sean Babic volleyed just over in the 25th and then had a hand in the goal which gave the Mounties a half time lead.

A free kick in the centre was lifted high to the left hand post where Babic managed to hook the ball back almost as high to the far side where big Willie Aloisi headed just inside the right post.

Mark Crittenden steered a shot wide from 20 yards after a slick Greystanes move in the 51st involving Brad Racker, Darren Waterson and Chris Sciberras.

Darren Iocca was unlucky not to score in a game which saw one of his best performances, but he was always in the thick of the action and a constant threat .

He flicked a ball over the head of Waterson from the right which allowed Babic to come racing through and tuck the ball past Apps for the second Mounties goal in the 63rd.

Babic won a heading duel with Waterson six minutes later and cut the ball back from the left byline. The keeper and a defender both waited for the other to clear the ball and Joe Bruni nipped in to place the ball in the vacant net.

A Greystanes corner from the right by Sciberras was met at the near post by 68th minute substitute Darren Peters and bundled over the line by Waterson to give 'Stanes a show.

They persevered despite some near misses at the other end involving Babic and Iocca and scored a second in the last minute.

A cross from the left by Sciberras, who had done good work on the flanks, was headed down by Peters right in front and went in before the defence could reach it.

Mark Racker was a potential menace, but kept under a strong hold by his opponents, who were obviously instructed by Marconi youth team coach and temporary Mounties chief Lee Sterrey of the Greystanes striker's ability.

Neil Mineff and Michael Grass did well, with Apps as capable as ever in goal.

Mounties were well served by Frank Serratore, Willie Aloisi and Eric Lynch, with lots of spark coming from Troy Davies and Scott Spurway in midfield.

Joe Bruni and Sean Babic won't be around much longer as Marconi youth are to tour in a month or so and they will be missed when they go.

Coach Lee Sterrey will also be off before the season ends, due to the same tour, and Vic Dalgleish will resume control for any remaining matches.

FAIRFIELD EASE PAST AUBURN

The score might suggest otherwise, but Fairfield Bulls should never have allowed visiting Auburn to get as close as they did at the finish of a game at Nineveh Field which saw three Auburn players marched by referee Jonathan Streeter.

With Fairfield scoring twice in quick succession before the break it was something of an unforgivable lapse which let Auburn pull one back as well in that first period.

First Sasha Talevski put away a penalty in the 42nd after Richard Varga had been brought down in a one on one with a defender inside the area.

Then a minute later Martin Batalla made it two when he cracked his shot into the top corner after dispossessing a defender inside the box.

Auburn clung on by getting a goal on the stroke of half time when Aydin Cetinay hit a strong free kick and Frank Mikuletic parried the ball to the feet of Robbie Issa, leaving the Auburn man with a simple tap in.

Leading 2-1 Fairfield extended that advantage only 8 minutes into the second half when Sasha Talevski raced through from half way and laid on a telling pass for Fadi Chedid which the youngster converted nicely for the third goal.

Down to eight men at the finish coach Jae Wang was on hand to score a second for his side when Cetinay again broke through and intercepted a pass at the back, leaving Wang to plant the ball in the net.

Auburn were without some regulars due to suspensions and with Ante Krezo, Mustafa Kadayifci and Bekir Bulut all sent off, they will again be short handed this coming weekend.

BRIEF WEEKEND PREVIEW

During the week the beleaguered Warringah Dolphins received the news that former Queensland based striker Robert Booy had sought a release to return north. Meanwhile their other high profile striker, flame- haired Matt Weardon, is on a Mexican sojourn and there is no indication when he might be back.

With four make up games among nine still to play in the next five weeks the Dolphins are stretching the playing resources thinner all the time. It has been a tough time for coach Agenor Muniz and his players.

The Dolphins meet Ryde at T G Millner in a vital match for the coast-hugging side who will take comfort from strong showings by struggling sides on the same ground earlier this season.

Illawarra Lions may be struggling too this year but they have big plans for next.

Their new ground at Berkeley is about to be worked on in two weeks for the first time and the complex should be a big boost to the South Coast club and their huge support base.

Meanwhile they meet Belmore Hercules at Blick Oval on Sunday with a realistic chance of toppling the home side who will have some players missing due to suspensions.

The Lions should be able to snare a point on their best performances

West Wanderers must make the most of home advantage on Saturday against Hills United at the Hajduk Stadium they call home and gain further ground on those above them.

Greystanes are in action on Sunday too with Bathurst the visitors to a much more temporary home at Mona Park. This is a game the 'Stanes can win, with any luck and we can see that happening there.

Leaders Hurstville City Minotaurs take on Eastern Suburbs at Hurstville Oval with either a midweek game behind them or some players missing so the visitors could have an edge. This is a game which should be very tight and a low scoring draw is forecast.

Minotaurs have signed George Manolopoulos from Canterbury Marrickville Olympic to add further strength to the defence for the rest of the season.

Stanmore will find Mount Pritchard a tough nut to crack at Arlington Oval where goals may be at a premium. A scoreless draw is on the cards, unless Eddie Briscoe and Darren locca can improve their accuracy in front of goal.

Auburn entertain Rockdale at Mona Park on Saturday, with Penrith Panthers back at Cook Park to test Fairfield Bulls needing some points to steer clear of safety.

TEAM TALK

With Dave Cooper and Peter Kogoy

Rangers hero joins Demons

The big news over the past few weeks in the Super League has been the signing of former Scottish professional Stuart Munro by Blacktown. The 34 year old Munro had a distunguished career in Scotland and England but has decided on a move to Australia and Blacktown were the first to snap up the experienced left sided defender/midfielder.

Munro made nearly 250 appearnces for Glasgow Rangers before brief stints with Blackburn Rovers and Bristol City. Munro returned to Scotland and played with St. Mirren last season.

Scott Baillie headed off to England last week for trials with several clubs. Baillie a former Players Player of the Year recipient has had two good years with UTS Olympic in the Ericsson Cup and feels he will give England a shot before his career finishes. He has had a short stint with Bankstown this year.

Bankstown have lost Can Celik for probably the rest of the season. Celik has had to go to Turkey where he is with his gravely ill father.

With their departures, David Mijalkov has called for reinforcements and signed on loan Goran Vulic from Blacktown. The big, tall defender will more than compensate for Celik's loss.

Matthew Heighway's injury problems continue with a back ailment keeping him sidelined at present. Heighway missed much of the first round with a chronic shin splints problem but it is now his back which has seen him miss the last three matches.

There has been some movement at Leichhardt as well. Coach Tony Pezzano has been replaced by his former Socceroo teammate and St. George coach Peter Katholos.

Pezzano's axing has surprised many as he had Leichhardt sitting fairly comfortably in second spot. Katholos has come in as caretaker coach for just the remainder of the season.

Out of favour keeper Frank Mikuletic (pictured) has been loaned out to Fairfield Bulls for the rest of the season.

Another coaching scalp is that of John Doyle at Sydney United. It also has raised eyebrows considering the players he had at his disposal for much of the season and it is only been in the past few weeks that United has acquired players from their successful National Youth team for the State League outfit. He has been replaced by the National Youth League coach Ivan Petkovic.

Also on a coaching note, former Socceroo boss Rale Rasic is back coaching taking over at Fairfield Bulls.

There have been quite a number of players from the Ericsson Cup that have signed for 1st Division sides this season. Michael Reda (Wollongong) and Craig Sharpley (Newcastle) are both playing with Eastern Suburbs, Sean Babic (Marconi) is with Mt. Pritchard, while Velimir Kupresak (Sydney United), Richard Lloyd and Saso Dimoski (both Wollongong) are playing with Illawarra Lions.

In other 1st Division news, former Ryde City keeper Andrew Prentice has signed for the remainder of the season with Rockdale City.

WARATAH CUP

The highlight fixture of the remaining Round 4 Waratah Cup matches was between Parramatta and St. George. Having met just three days earlier where Daniel Cummins scored a dramatic last minute equaliser for the Saints, it was to be no repeat as Parramatta scored a convincing 2-0 win.

Playing in steady rain for most of the game, the first half was fairly even but just 27 seconds into the second half Steve Karavatakis put Parramatta ahead for the opening goal. Strike partner Saso Petrovski added a second with only minutes remaining.

The Eagles now go on to meet Central Coast in Round 5 in what promises to be a terrific clash at Melita Stadium.

For full results of round four, see Scoreboard.

Lysaughts, who knocked out Macarthur Rams in the last round, face another hurdle in Blacktown City next week.

The South Coast minnows will again look to goalkeeper Warwick Young to keep a clean sheet.

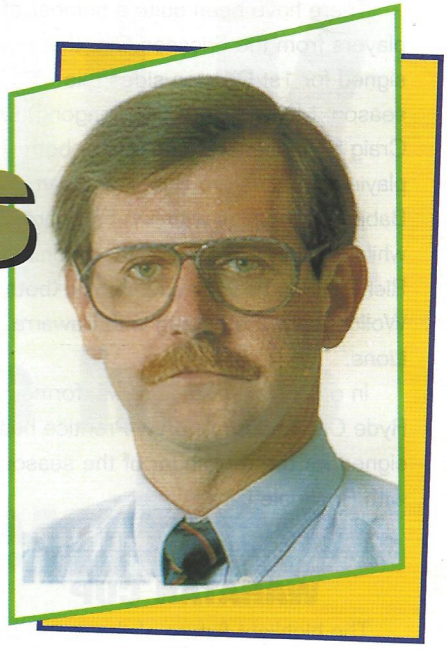
Peter Kogoy looks at the World Game



YOUNG Socceroo Mark Robertson is set to join Nottingham Forest after Japan knocked out Australia from the World Youth Cup in Malaysia.

Robertson, a dashing and enterprising midfielder from Marconi, impressed Forest scouts in the Socceroos' group win against defending cup champions Argentina at Kangar.

It has been a meteroic rise for Robertson who only staked a first team spot at Marconi in the second half of last season.

The 20-year-old is set to join Young Socceroo team mate Lucas Neill in English football, while skipper and goalkeeper Danny Milosevic and Hayden Foxe are destined for the German Bundesliga next season.

"Robbo deserves his chance after some impressive performances against Argentina and Japan," said coach Les Scheinflug.

Scheinflug's Young Socceroos were far from disgraced in bowing out of the World Youth Cup to Japan after having earlier topped their group.

"While I'm disappointed, the boys played their hearts out," said Scheinflug of the Young Socceroos' 1-0 loss.

"If the legs don't go, the mind doesn't go," he said.

"We didn't have the midfield players to come from behind and score goals.

"We were unlucky to lose, I don't think Japan was the better side."

Most of Australia's chances on goal were low percentage shots from long range and twin strikers Michael Curcija and Kosta Salapasidis had few opportunities close to goal.

Australia built up methodically from the back in the first half but the major source of danger were dashing runs down the right from outstanding fullback Brett Emerton.

Yanagisawa delivered the fatal blow to Australia's hopes after midfielder Vince Grella was dispossessed on the edge of his area just before the break.

The Japanese striker poked the ball past Milosevic from 10 metres despite being surrounded by three defenders.

"It was the worst time to conceed a goal. We were all hoping to come in at halftime and correct a few things but it was a killer blow," Scheinflug said.

"I'm still proud of the boys. We had six players who missed the tournament through injury.

"The guys who came into the squad over the last month gave me everything," Scheinflug said.

"The heat and humidity also took its toll of the players. it was like playing in a sauna, eventually something had to give."

Scheinflug, who comes off contract next April, nominated Milosevic and fellow defenders Foxe, Con Blatsis and Brett Emerton as the Young Socceroos' most consistent players through the tournament.

Les Scheinflug says the Young Socceroos are a definite medal chance for the Sydney 2000 Olympics.

"If the team can be properly prepared and works hard, nothing is impossible, even the Olympics," said Scheinflug.

"Our win over defending champion Argentina shows we can do it but the team has to have good competition on a regular basis.

"We were babies against some of the other nations in Malaysia but I'm proud of the performance by the squad.

"Their legs were gone against Japan and they didn't fully recover from the win over Argentina but the players never gave up and kept pushing forward."

Scheinflug said the players return home much wiser and better from the experience of the tournament and had special praise for the team defence.

Goalkeeper and captain Danny Milosevic earned his highest praise for his tremendous discipline and leadership with backline members Hayden Foxe, Brett Emerton and Con Blatsis also rating highly.

"The fact that they couldn't maintain the high standard they reached against Argentina was something they didn't want to see happen," he said.

"But we had lost half of our first team before the first match and a good, solid squad of 18 players is needed for a world championship.

"Argentina and Brazil from day one keep their squad together for two years leading up to a world title and that's why they are so good."

There's no denying Socceroo coach Terry Venables is proving a miracle worker following Australia's 3-0 win over New Zealand at North Harbour last weekend.

Goals to John Aloisi, Aurelio Vidmar and Marconi favourite Craig Foster ensured the Socceroos take a healthy goal margin in the second leg set down for the Sydney Football Stadium this weekend.

It took Venables' coaching record since taking charge of the Socceroos back in January to a perfect 10.

"It was a great reult. We got the job done in the first half," said Venables.

"We could have been more ruthless in front of goal but we are becoming a good side."

Women's Soccer

NSW Youth coach Bruce Tilt has named a squad of 16 to lead the defence of the Australian championship to be played in Melbourne from September 7-13.

Tilt, who took the senior team to victory on his state coaching debut last year, now takes over the reins of the Under 19s.

Even though the squad is young, Tilt has no doubt his young charges have the ability and skill to take the championship again.

The squad is dominated by members of both the NSWIS team and the Jets ITC outfit.

Clearly former state youth coach Leigh Wardell has had a tremendous impact on the final make-up of the squad with her side leading the WSL reserve grade competition.

The one question mark surrounds the fitness of Aussie international Kelly Golebiowski who has been sidelined since last December with a knee problem.

Even though the squad is young, Tilt has no doubt his young charges have the ability and skill to take the championship again.

The NSW Youth squad is: Renee Bevan, Amanda Boyle, Alicia Cavanagh, Kristine Collins, Lisa Collins, Leah Cam, Rhian Davies, Heather Garriock, Kelly Golebiowski, Cassandra Kell, Neisha Klessattel, Melissa Link, Cassie McCall, Danielle Smith and Sarah Walsh.

Tilt has also named Dannelle Exton, Petra Gavric, Lori Scandurra, Belinda Seers and Peta Shirlaw in a train-squad.

Meanwhile, in the WSL Marconi proved far too strong at home for Northern NSW ITC in a midweek deferred fixture, winning 2-1.

It was a fast-paced and often physical encounter with Marconi's Michelle Carney getting the opening goal.

Carney unleashed a 30 metre volley which floated over the opposition keeper's head to find the net inside the far post.

Nothern got back into the match through a spot kick from midfielder Tracy Baker.
